

The Daily Democrat.

VOL. 1.

ANADARKO, CADDO COUNTY, OKLAHOMA, SEPTEMBER 30, 1907.

NO. 214

E. L. FULTON SPOKE

At Randlett Park Congressman-elect Thanked Caddo County

In a short speech, Hon. E. L. Fulton addressed the people of the county Saturday afternoon, expressive of his gratitude and friendliness. Mr. Fulton's remarks were entirely non-partisan, and were of such a degree of moderation and good sense as made every one of his supporters congratulate himself that the choice fell upon Mr. Fulton.

After expressing his thanks, for the Caddo county vote, Mr. Fulton said a few words with reference to the future of Democracy in Oklahoma, showing the people that what is wanted is good government in their interest, irrespective of whether it is branded Republican or Democratic. If the Democratic officials shall betray their trust by grafting and by allowing graft, then the Democratic party must lose. He showed also that the railway and corporate influences, having tried their unsuccessful best to beat the candidates in the people's interest, they would now try to "join" these officials, something that the people whose votes made them officials should be eternally on their guard against. "Eternal vigilance," he quoted, "is the price of liberty."

Mr. Fulton occupies the rather unsatisfactory position of having to make a campaign next fall—two campaigns in two years. He will have every inducement to hard work, then, besides the desire to make good on the pledges in his platform.

The democrats of his district will watch his career with the greatest interest. Much depends upon, in fact, whether the district remains democratic depends upon it.

Geronimo Will Preach

Geronimo, the terrible, has had a complete change of heart. In his early life he spent much time on the warpath and was a terror that made thousands tremble with fear while many there were who met death at his hand. Old age, enveloped in captivity, has caused the veteran Apache warrior to discard his early customs and to embrace religion.

At the pow-wow which is to be held at Collinsville, I. T. beginning Oct. 14th, Geronimo will preach a sermon in his native language which will be translated by his interpreter into English.

Chief Spybuck, of the Shawnees secured permission from the war department for Geronimo to visit him during this last big celebration but it was Geronimo's own request that the red men and urged them in the way of religion.

Return From Vacation

Mrs. William Reece and daughter, Miss Hazel, returned Saturday night from Sulphur, where they have been for rest and recreation for several weeks. They report a most refreshing trip. On their way home, they stopped a day at Oklahoma City where Miss Hazel visited the business establishments of a number of the large insurance companies there.

Cotton Bought

Yesterday—35 bales from 11.40 to 11.50
Today—20 bales from 11.60 to 11.75.

Weather Forecast

Washington, Sept. 30—Oklahoma and Indian Territory. fall showers.

LOCAL NOTES

Ralph Stratton is in Verden for the day.

Miss Cora West is in town from Verden today.

Clarence Woolley went to Verden this morning.

J. R. Stowe is in Oklahoma City on business.

Mrs. M. A. Heraty is in Chickasha for the day.

L. Smith, of Chickasha, spent Sunday in the city.

J. E. White is a business visitor in Binger today.

B. B. Spears of Chickasha spent yesterday in the city.

H. C. Franz went to Carnegie this morning on business.

M. Hester returned to his home in Carnegie this morning.

Father Avarisus is spending a few days in Oklahoma City.

Miss Mabel Wallis is the possessor of a fine pony since Saturday.

Miss Beth Coulter has been a sufferer from poisoning for several days.

Mrs. B. R. Fitts, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is convalescing.

Prof. S. A. Carson, of Palls, Okla., was prospecting in this county last week.

James Jarvis and family have gone to Gracemont to visit a few days with relatives.

W. W. Terry and daughter, Miss Dessie, spent Sunday in Apache returning this morning.

R. Cox, of Altona, Illinois, was looking after investments here the latter part of last week.

J. A. Dinkler has returned from Oklahoma City and Kansas City, where he purchased his holiday goods.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Van Brunt, of Waurika, were in town yesterday visiting the Virgil Haskell family.

Mrs. W. F. Hancock left this morning for Kingfisher, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Otis Smith.

J. O. Stewart, who was here to attend his brother's funeral, returned this morning to his home in Stillwater.

Miss Anna Kirkpatrick commenced today to clerk at Ogle's store. She is staying at the home of Wesley Childs.

A. J. Thornton and family passed through here this morning enroute from Faxon to Binger, where they are moving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith have returned to their home in Cushing after a visit of a couple of weeks with their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Brackman.

Mrs. Se-ah-to Stevenson left this morning for her home in Carnegie. She came here to place her two eldest children in the Riverside School.

The B. K. Wood Drug store is moving from the E. B. Widaman building today into its new quarters across the street, Postmaster Campbell's building.

A Time to Play

The old proverb that there is a time to work and a time to play receives proper notice at Paul Kaiser's new place, the old Youngheim stand. Mr. Kaiser has had the place completely refurnished, put in new tables and more of them, and has one of the most pleasant places for a man to sit and smoke his cigar after his day's work if he does not care to play billiards or pool, that can be found outside the club rooms of a large city. Inviting chairs placed where those resting from the day's business may gaze out on the street, or if it will please them better, put in the time reading the late magazines, short stories and periodicals. Paul does everything well, so he has employed a colored man whose business is to look out for the comfort of the patrons of the place.

For a good smoke, a good read, a good game, you should stop at Paul Kaiser's. When you do, you will speedily get the habit.

Away to School

Miss Theresa Franz left this morning for Arcadia, Missouri, where she will attend a young lady's seminary this year. She had intended to start last Tuesday, but was taken sick and had to postpone her departure a week. Her mother accompanied her to Oklahoma City. Miss Theresa has many friends who wish her success in her school work.

"Just Plain Folks"

"Just Plain Folks" was showed to a large and appreciative audience at the McAninch Saturday night, by the Whittington Comedy Company.

It was the opening show of the season, and was put on very well.

Date Whittington is to be commended as being the champion buck and wing dancer of the world. His dancing was of the first class.

All the acting was of first class and she actors showed their ability as stage artists.

Methodist Service

Rev. F. L. Farrington preached a very interesting sermon last night at the First M. E. church. The male quartet sang two beautiful selections.

Marriage license was today issued to G. E. Oliver and Maude E. West, of Hydro.

Miss Mary Houston, of Carnegie, passed through here this morning enroute to Oklahoma City.

Frank Bellew, who has been working on Charlie Wester's new brick building, fell off Saturday and dislocated his right shoulder. Mr. Bellew is up and around today but not on duty.

Mrs. J. T. Gibbons, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hall, returned this morning to her home in Perry. Mrs. Hall returned with her to spend a few days.

Misses Mabelle Carson, Anna and Alice Kirkpatrick, and Messrs. Sam Ray, J. D. Parson, and L. Prince spent yesterday very pleasantly at the Kirkpatrick home, 7 miles north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams arrived in the city yesterday evening after two week's absence in Oklahoma City and Fort Worth and are the guests of Mrs. Williams parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jon. Blackerby on West Washington Avenue.

ESCHITI LOSES KELL WINS

Is the Courts Decision as Handed Down by Judge Gillette.

Judge F. E. Gillette rendered his decision Wednesday morning in the matter of the injunction against the Wichita Falls and Northwestern railway company, which is promoting the townsites of Kell, sustaining the demurrer against the issuance of the injunction asked for by the petitioners for the United States, thus handing down his opinion in favor of the railroad townsites of Kell and against the government townsites of Eschiti.

The attorneys for the petitioners will appeal the case to the supreme court of the territory but Judge Gillette has reviewed the case very thoroughly and it is seldom that his decisions are reversed.

The attorneys for the railroad company and the promoters of the supposed townsites of Kell are R. J. Ray and W. C. Stevens of this city and W. G. Hough of Wichita Falls.

For the petitioners the attorneys are John Embury of Guthrie, Louis McKnight of Anadarko and B. M. Parmenter of this city.

This decision if sustained by the higher court will be the death knell of Eschiti and the making of the proposed railroad town of Kell. Many people who paid fancy prices for lots in Eschiti are very much disappointed and unless the government comes to their rescue and protects them in some way it is expected that many of them will refuse to pay the remainder of the purchase price of the lots.—Lawton Star.

Today's Market.

(Tomberlin & Co., north side Broadway, Anadarko, O. T.)

New York, Sept. 30.—Liverpool came a little better than expected this morning and improved as the day progressed. New York seemed indifferent to the better feeling on the other side, and opened two points below Saturday's close. This was induced by hedge selling but later a prominent bull leader began to give support and prices gradually advanced. January selling up to 1132. A wave of selling set in around that figure and prices gradually receded. The weather map this morning was good but heavy rains fell in the eastern states over Sunday and though very little damage was done beyond retarding picking, had little, if any, effect. There seems but little disposition on the part of the trade to enter the market to any extent, they being inclined to await the Government reports next Wednesday. Miss Giles will give an estimate on conditions at 4 p. m. today and this is expected to be bullish. One prominent operator estimated the condition at 7145 against 7609 last month. To our way of thinking much depends on the weather and appearance of frost. Should we have late frost prices will decline from one-half to three-quarters of a cent from present prices. We believe a trade position of the bull side for the present the safest and can only advise to be conservative.

New York Cotton.
Open High Low Close
Oct. 1090 1105 1089 1096 a 97
Dec. 1107 1124 1098 1113 a 14
Jan. 1119 1132 1113 1118 a 19
Spots 1180. Down 5 points.

New Orleans
Oct. 1117 1127 1113 1118a19
Dec. 1110 1121 1105 1111a12
Jan. 1113 1127 1111 1116a17
Spots 11 9-16, 1-16 1/2 up.

Chicago Markets.
Wheat.
Dec. 99 99 97 98
May. 105 105 104 104

Corn.
Dec. 58 59 57 58
May. 59 60 58 59

Oats.
Dec. 52 52 51 52
May. 53 53 52 53

NOW

NOW

This Is

an invitation to you to attend

Our Fall Display.

Miss Lively

will be delighted to show you the most

Charming New Millinery

For..

Fall and Winter.

We have in our first shipments of smart, new Tailor-Made Frocks, Waists and Skirts. They combine quality, style and workmanship at extraordinary low prices

A Complete Line Always of

Up-To-Now
Dress Goods
Furnishings
Clothing
Shoes

At prices well within the scope of all

"Anadarko's Big Store"

MAX GOLDMAN
& CO.

NOW

NOW